Isolated & Secluded, highlighting a Picturesque Lake as a Backdrop, this custom home is perfectly positioned on over 10 acres offering 220' of waterfront. Having been featured in a local magazine for its gorgeous pool & lake panoramas, this modest home is sure to meet all your expectations. With leaded glass entry doors, travertine flooring and earth tone finishes all emphasized by the abundance of natural light attained thru large picture windows, "The Stage Has Been Set". Volume ceilings help compliment the open floor plan seamlessly connecting the living rm, dining rm and kitchen into a wonderful family gathering place and entertaining area. A generous kitchen offers significant cabinetry and counter space including a cooktop located on the center island keeping your focus on the scenic lake while making preparations. Attention has been given to the sizable Master Suite where the windows have been fitted with plantation shutter whereas French doors open to an incomparable infinity edge salt pool where tranquility of the waterfall & peacefulness of nature fill the room. A soaking tub, separate shower, dual sinks and granite counters are highlighted by travertine stone & warm finishes of this oversized master bath. The guest room features French doors to an open deck while conveniently located near the hall bath & laundry room whereas bedroom 3 can be utilized as office/study as needed. Built as a storm shelter, the lower level offers an amazing home theater room with a 10' screen and projection TV, a half bath, full wet bar and direct access to the back yard and outdoor shower. Featuring a 3 zone A/C system, 2 water heaters, spray foam
